The RoseWater Group of Companies announces its newest division

The RoseWater Group of Companies, is pleased to announce the launch of its newest division, RoseWater Developments. RoseWater Developments will consist of RoseWater Construction Group, a construction company that will build Industrial and Commercial projects, and RoseWater Residential Group, which will build out residential properties, from single family low rise to mixed use midrise.

RoseWater has joined forces with Richard Fava, a seasoned veteran of the residential construction industry with over 25 years of experience and over 1,500 homes to his credit and winner of multiple industry awards.

“I’ve known the RoseWater team for some time and was always waiting for the right time to join forces” stated Richard Fava, “and when I saw the opportunities they had in front of them, I knew this was the perfect time to start this division and bring things to a new level.”

RoseWater Developments is the most recently formed division within the RoseWater Group of Companies. This division will be headed by Richard Fava.
